CHRIST · CHURCH · CATHEDRAL

WIDENING THE CIRCLE OF GOD'S EMBRACE WITH HEART AND VOICE

Announcements • Sunday, January 23, 2022

Welcome to worship at Christ Church Cathedral. If this is your first time with us, we invite you to complete a visitor's card found at the end of the pew and place it in the offering plate. We are a space of ancient ritual and contemporary faith, engaged in the culture and needs of the moment. This bulletin contains all you need to join us in worship; everyone is welcome to receive communion at God's table, and the clergy are happy to speak with you at any time. We are delighted you're here and invite you to make this place yours.

We welcome The Rev. 8f' Amy Lindemann Allen, assistant professor of the New Testament at Christian Theological Seminary as our guest preacher today at 8 and 10 a.m. Ordained in the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, Amy earned her doctorate in New Testament and Early Christianity from Vanderbilt University. She has written numerous preaching guides and lectionary blogs both in print and online in addition to journal articles and book chapters. At 11:15 a.m., Rev. Amy and Dean Gray Lesesne will host our Forum hour to unpack the Scripture readings of the day...it's a great opportunity for you to "ask a Biblical scholar anything"!

We look forward to seeing you at our Annual Parish Meeting on Sunday, Jan. 30, at 11:30 a.m. All eligible electors will receive their absentee ballot in the mail so that they may vote in the parish election if they are unable to attend the Annual Meeting. Due to pandemic staffing shortages plaguing businesses nationally and locally, our 2022 election ballots are behind schedule at the printer. We will keep mail-in ballots that arrive after the Jan. 23 deadline separate, and the Vestry will decide at their Jan. 25 meeting about accepting ballots that arrive after the date, given the unusual circumstances. If you have any questions, please contact Lauren Good at LaurenG@cccindy.org or at 317-636-4577, ext. 113.

All members are invited to attend the Annual Parish Meeting, where we will elect new Vestry members and delegates to the Diocesan Convention that will take place in Nov. 2022. We are particularly looking forward to this annual meeting because our Discernment Team will present focus areas for our upcoming ministry as determined by all the input they received from our members and our neighbors.

Candidates for Vestry: Liliana Guzman, Andrea Hunley, Conner McNeely, Perry Mihalakos, Steve Whaley. Candidates for Diocesan Convention: Jeffrey Guerrero, Elaine Klemesrud, Ewan McDuffee, Brent Luebcke (alternate 1), Milicent Wright (alternate 2).

Sacred Ground begins Jan. 26. This video-based dialogue series about race was developed by the Episcopal Church and will run from Jan. 26 through April 6. This program is co-sponsored by the Episcopal Diocese of Indianapolis, the Union of Black Episcopalians, and the diocesan Racial Justice and Education Team. CCC's own Canon Mariann Scott will facilitate alongside Deacon Cathy Scott. The group will meet via Zoom on Wednesdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Questions? Contact Deacon Cathy at cathyscott@stmattsindy.org.

Catechumenate begins Monday, Feb. 7. Do you have questions about God, faith, the church, or spirituality? These questions are never in the way of our spiritual growth and life, even if they are critical—asking questions is how we grow. Join Dean Gray Lesesne Mondays at 6 p.m. to explore your faith in a friendly, supportive group.

Christ Church Cathedral welcomes people of every race; gender; gender identity; sexual orientation, physical and mental ability; national origin; and economic station—none of which may limit full participation in the life of our community.

Financial offerings will be gratefully received in the offering plate, by mail, on our website at www.cccindy.org/donate, or by texting CCCINDY to 73256.

Do you give online? If you have contributed online, please take an "I Gave Online" card from the pew and place it in the offering plate so that we may bless and give thanks for your gift.

Would you like to contribute to the beauty of the liturgy by providing flowers for the altar? please contact Evelyn Johnson at evelynj@cccindy.org.

Many thanks to those lay ministers serving as altar guild, acolytes, lectors, ushers, and vergers today. We always welcome new members. Contact the clergy to volunteer.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We acknowledge that we are on land stolen from the Miami and Kickapoo tribes. Let this acknowledgement serve as a reminder of our ongoing efforts to recognize, honor, reconcile and partner with Indigenous people whose lands and water we benefit from today.

Arise, shine, for your light has come, *

Nations will stream to your light, *
and kings to the brightness of your dawning.

GLORIA Standing as able, sung by the choir

Glory be to God on high,
and on earth peace, good will towards men.

We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee,
we glorify thee,
we give thanks to thee for thy great glory,

O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.
O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ;
O Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father,
that takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.

Thou that takes away the sins of the world,

Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father,

For thou only art holy;
thou only art the Lord;
thou only, O Christ,
with the Holy Ghost,
art most high in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Let us pray. Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING: Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10 Seated

All the people of Israel gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the Lord with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading. And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength."

People: Thanks be to God.

cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound,
and innocent of a great offense.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *
O Lord, my strength and my redeemer.

THE SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31a

Just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body--Jews or Greeks, slaves or free--and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. Indeed, the body does not consist of one member but of many. If the foot would say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. And if the ear would say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. If all were a single member, where would the body be? As it is, there are many members, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, and those members of the body that we think less honorable we clothe with greater honor, and our less respectable members are treated with greater respect; whereas our more respectable members do not need this. But God has so arranged the body, giving the greater honor to the inferior member, that there may be no dissension within the body, but the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together with it; if one member is honored, all rejoice together with it. Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers; then deeds of power, then gifts of healing, forms of assistance, forms of leadership, various kinds of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? Do all possess gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? But strive for the greater gifts.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: Luke 4:14-21

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, "Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

THE SERMON

The Reverend Dr. Amy Lindemann Allen

THE NICENE CREED Standing as able

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ANTHEM AT THE OFFERTORY

Edward Elgar

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor: He hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord; To give unto them that mourn a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He might be glorified. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth before all the nations.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING Eucharistic Prayer B (Expanded Language) Standing as able

Presider: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS Sung by the choir

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts:
Heaven and earth are full of thy Glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.

Blessed is he that cometh
in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel as able.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All: We remember Christ's death. We proclaim Christ's resurrection. We await Christ's coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD Silence is kept

AGNUS DEI Sung by the choir

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

THE INVITATION

Presider: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

This is the Lord's Table. All are welcome. Bread is received with open hands, standing as able. Those preferring a blessing may indicate by crossing their arms. Gluten free bread is available upon request.

MUSIC NOTES: Last week, the church music world lost one of its most cherished composers, practitioners, and colleagues. On January 10, Francis Jackson passed away peacefully at the age of 104. Jackson's musical life was encompassed almost entirely at York Minster, where he sang as a chorister then was Organist and Choirmaster from 1946 to 1982. Jackson was trained at York Minster by his predecessor, Edward C. Bairstow, who took the post in 1913, meaning that music at York was led by Bairstow or Jackson for the staggering span of 69 years!
